Public Law No. _____

1 § 98101. Definitions. As used in this Chapter, the following terms shall 2 mean:

3 (a) emergency care to sexual assault victims means a medical 4 examination, procedure, or service provided by an emergency health care 5 facility to a sexual assault victim following an alleged sexual offense.

6 (b) emergency contraception means one (1) or more prescription
7 drugs to prevent pregnancy, used separately or in combination, administered 8 to or self-administered by a patient within a medically recommended time 9 after sexual intercourse, dispensed for that purpose in accordance with 10 professional standards of practice and determined to be safe by the United 11 States Food and Drug Administration.

12 (c) emergency health care facility means a general hospital or 13 satellite emergency department licensed under Guam law.

14 (d) medically and factually accurate and objective means verified or 15 supported by the weight of research conducted in compliance with accepted 16 scientific methods and standards, published in peer-reviewed journals and 17 recognized as accurate and objective by leading professional organizations 18 and agencies with relevant expertise in the field of obstetrics and gynecology.

19 (e) sexual assault victim means a female who alleges or is alleged to 20 have suffered a personal, physical, or psychological injury as a result of a 21 sexual offense.

22 (f) sexual offense means criminal sexual conduct as defined in 9
23 GCA Chapter 25.

24 § 98102. Provision of Emergency Care to Sexual Assault Victim.

25 An emergency health care facility shall provide emergency care to a sexual 26 assault victim. It shall be the standard of care for an emergency health care facility 27 to:

1 (a) provide each sexual assault victim with medically and factually
2 accurate and objective oral and written information about emergency
3 contraception and sexually transmitted diseases, as provided for in Section 3
4 of this Chapter;

5 (b) orally inform each sexual assault victim of her option to be 6 provided emergency contraception at the health care facility or Healing Hearts 7 Crisis Center; and

8 (c) provide emergency contraception to the sexual assault victim, 9 upon her request, unless contraindicated. If the emergency contraceptive is in 10 the form of pills, the provision of the emergency contraception shall include 11 the initial dose that the victim may take at the emergency health care facility, 12 as well as the follow-up dose that the victim can self-administer later.

13 An emergency health care facility shall not be required to provide emergency 14 contraception to a sexual assault victim who is pregnant.”

15 § 98103. Policies, Procedures Concerning Personnel Training.

16 An emergency health care facility shall have written policies and procedures 17 to ensure that all personnel who provide care or information to a sexual assault 18 victim:

19 (a) are trained to provide medically and factually accurate and 20 objective information about emergency contraception and sexually 21 transmitted diseases to a sexual assault victim; and 22 (b) provide that information to a sexual assault victim.

23 § 98104. Written Information Relative to Emergency Contraception
24 for Sexual Assault Victims.

25 The Director of Public Health and Social Services, in collaboration with the 26 Director of the Bureau of Women’s Affairs, the Guam Sexual Assault Response 27 Team, the Guam Coalition against Sexual Assault and Family Violence and the

1 Healing Hearts Crisis Center, shall develop, prepare, and produce written 2 information relating to emergency contraception for the prevention of pregnancy in 3 sexual assault victims; and sexually transmitted diseases.

4 The information shall be clearly written and readily comprehensible in a 5 culturally competent manner, as the Director, in collaboration with the Bureau of 6 Women's Affairs, the Guam Sexual Assault Response Team, the Guam Coalition
7 against Sexual Assault and Family Violence and the Healing Hearts Crisis Center, 8 deems necessary to inform a sexual assault victim. The information shall explain the 9 nature of emergency contraception, the effectiveness of emergency contraception in 10 preventing pregnancy, where emergency contraception can be obtained, and 11 treatment options; and the symptoms and effects of sexually transmitted diseases, 12 and treatment options. The information shall be distributed to all hospital and 13 satellite emergency departments for use in those facilities."

14 Section 2. A new paragraph (l) is added to § 163.40, Chapter 163, Title 8, 15 Guam Code Annotated, to read as follows:

16 "(l) to have access to emergency contraception as provided for by 17 Chapter 98, Title 10, Guam Code Annotated."

18 Section 3 Effective Date. This Act shall be effective upon enactment.

19 Section 4. Severability. If any provision of this Act or its application to any 20 person or circumstance is found to be invalid or inorganic, such invalidity shall not 21 affect other provisions or applications of this Act that can be given effect without 22 the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are 23 severable.
