AN ACT TO ADD A NEW § 1041 TO CHAPTER 10, TITLE 1, GUAM CODE ANNOTATED, RELATIVE TO DESIGNATING THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER AS “VETERANS SERVICE RECOGNITION MONTH” IN GUAM AND ESTABLISHING PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES TO HONOR AND SUPPORT VETERANS THROUGHOUT THE MONTH.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF GUAM:

Section 1. Legislative Findings and Intent. I Liheslaturan Guåhan finds that throughout our island’s history, the people of Guam have answered America’s call to service with unwavering dedication and extraordinary valor. From the

1 beaches of Normandy to the mountains of Korea, from the jungles of Vietnam to the 2 deserts of Iraq and Afghanistan, sons and daughters of Guam have served with 3 distinction in every major conflict since World War I. This legacy of service is 4 woven deeply into the fabric of our island's culture, where warrior traditions of 5 ancient CHamoru society find modern expression in military service to the United 6 States of America.

7 Since Guam became a U.S. territory in 1898, our sons and daughters have 8 fought and sacrificed in every major American conflict: in the trenches of World
9 War I; across the Pacific Theater of World War II; in the frozen mountains of Korea;
10 through the jungles of Vietnam; in the deserts of Operation Desert Storm; amid the 11 complex battlefields of Somalia, Bosnia, and Kosovo; across the harsh terrains of 12 Iraq and Afghanistan; and in the ongoing Global War on Terror. In each of these 13 conflicts, Guam's servicemembers have demonstrated extraordinary valor, earning 14 numerous Silver Stars, Bronze Stars, Distinguished Service Crosses, Navy Crosses, 15 Distinguished Flying Crosses, Purple Hearts, and other distinguished honors for their 16 courage and sacrifice in combat.

17 The human cost of this service is etched deeply in our community's heart.
18 Hundreds of Guam's sons and daughters have made the ultimate sacrifice in defense 19 of freedom, while thousands more bear the physical and invisible wounds of war.
20 Our veterans have endured grievous combat injuries, post-traumatic stress, and the 21 lasting impacts of toxic exposure. Their families have shouldered the weight of their 22 absence during multiple deployments, celebrated holidays through video calls from 23 distant bases, and in too many cases, received the solemn visit of a military casualty 24 officer bearing news that forever changed their lives.

25 I Liheslaturan Guåhan recognizes that military service from Guam often 26 spans generations within families, creating a legacy of sacrifice that touches every 27 village and nearly every family on our island. Mothers have seen their children

1 deploy to the same conflict zones where their spouses once served. Children have 2 grown up touching the names of parents and grandparents etched on memorial walls.
3 Gold Star Families have transformed their grief into service, supporting other 4 military families and ensuring their loved ones' sacrifices are never forgotten.

5 The month of November holds profound significance in military history,
6 marked by the armistice that ended World War I on the eleventh hour of the eleventh 7 day of the eleventh month in 1918. While Veterans Day stands as the centerpiece of 8 this month of remembrance, our gratitude and recognition of veterans' service cannot 9 be confined to a single day. The sacrifices of our veterans, their families, and 10 particularly our Gold Star families deserve sustained recognition and honor 11 throughout the month and beyond.

12 I Liheslaturan Guåhan acknowledges that our island's relationship with 13 military service was forever shaped by the experiences of World War II, when the 14 people of Guam demonstrated extraordinary courage and loyalty during enemy 15 occupation. The valiant service of CHamoru scouts, the Guam Combat Patrol, and 16 the Guam Militia alongside American forces during liberation exemplified the 17 unbreakable bond between Guam and the United States. This spirit of service
18 continues today, with Guam consistently maintaining one of the highest per capita 19 rates of military service in the nation.

20 I Liheslaturan Guåhan further finds that the contributions of Guam's veterans
21 extend far beyond their years in uniform. Upon returning to civilian life, these men 22 and women have consistently demonstrated exceptional leadership in our community,
23 serving as elected officials, educators, business leaders, and mentors to future
24 generations. Their commitment to public service remains unwavering, enriching 25 our island through their continued dedication to civic engagement and community 26 improvement.

1 I Liheslaturan Guåhan acknowledges the exceptional service of veterans from 2 each branch of the Armed Forces and National Guard components who have called 3 Guam home:

4 The Guam Army National Guard, whose citizen-soldiers have served with 5 distinction both in defending our island and responding to natural disasters since its 6 establishment in 1981, demonstrating the unique dual commitment to both our local 7 community and national defense while preserving CHamoru values of service and 8 community support:

9 The Guam Air National Guard, whose citizen-airmen have protected our skies
10 and provided crucial strategic airlift capabilities since 1971 through the 254th Air
11 Base Group, exemplifying the perfect blend of civilian contribution and military 12 readiness that defines the National Guard ethos;

13 The United States Army, whose soldiers from Guam have demonstrated 14 exceptional courage and determination in ground combat operations worldwide,
15 upholding the highest traditions of military service while bringing distinct CHamoru
16 values of strength and resilience to their units;

17 The United States Navy, whose sailors from Guam have maintained our proud 18 maritime heritage, serving with distinction on vessels throughout the world's oceans,
19 their service reflecting our island's deep connection to the sea;

20 The United States Air Force, whose airmen from Guam have excelled in 21 protecting our skies and projecting air power globally, their service building upon 22 the strategic importance of Guam's location in the Pacific;

23 The United States Marine Corps, whose Marines from Guam have upheld the 24 highest standards of combat excellence and dedication, their fierce fighting spirit
25 echoing the warrior ethos of our ancestors;

1 The United States Coast Guard, whose guardians from Guam have steadfastly 2 protected our maritime interests and preserved lives at sea, their service particularly 3 meaningful to our island community;

4 The United States Space Force, whose guardians from Guam now extend our 5 island's legacy of service into the newest domain of military operations, representing 6 our commitment to defending national interests in space.

7 I Liheslaturan Guåhan further acknowledges the profound sacrifices of 8 military families, particularly:

9 Military spouses, who maintain households and raise families during 10 deployments, their strength and resilience enabling the service of their loved ones
11 while preserving our cultural traditions;

12 Military children, who demonstrate remarkable adaptability and courage in 13 facing frequent moves and parental separations, their experiences enriching our 14 island's cultural diversity;

15 Gold Star Families, who have made the ultimate sacrifice, their loss serving 16 as a permanent reminder of the cost of freedom and the depth of service from our 17 island community.

18 The profound impact of military service on our island community cannot be 19 adequately recognized in a single day of remembrance. A month of recognition more 20 appropriately reflects the lifetime of service given by our veterans, the perpetual 21 sacrifice of their families, the enduring impact of their contributions to both our 22 island and our nation, and affords our community the time and opportunity to engage 23 appropriately thereto.
