Relative to recognizing Anita Linda Manibusan Arile for thirty-two (32) years of dedicated service to the Government of Guam; and congratulating her on her retirement.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA'TRENTAI OCHO NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Anita Linda Manibusan Arile, daughter of the late †Ernesto Venturanza Arile and †Josefina Perez Manibusan Arile, and is a native of Guåhan and has proudly called the village of Dededo her home for over thirty (30) years; and

WHEREAS, her life and career reflect a steadfast commitment to education, professional growth, community service, and the people of Guam. A graduate of the Guam Vocational-Technical High School in Mangilao in 1984, Anita continued to advance her education while balancing the responsibilities of public service and family. She earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Public Administration from the University of Guam in 2008 and, demonstrating her continuing commitment to professional and personal development, earned her Master of Public Administration from the University of Guam in 2011; and

WHEREAS, Anita began her distinguished career in the government of Guam on February 7, 1994, at the Department of Administration, where she commenced service as an Accounting Clerk. Through nearly three (3) decades of dedicated government service, she demonstrated diligence, integrity, perseverance, and an unwavering commitment to the responsible administration of public resources. Her knowledge, experience, and strong work ethic enabled her to progressively advance through the ranks, ultimately attaining the position of Management Analyst III in July 2012. Throughout her career, she has contributed to the efficient operations of the Department of Administration and has faithfully carried out her responsibilities in support of the government of Guam and the public it serves; and

WHEREAS, as a longtime member of the Association of Government Accountants, Anita has remained committed to professional development and to strengthening the knowledge and skills necessary for effective public administration. She has actively sought opportunities to expand her expertise through conferences, professional training, leadership development, and other educational opportunities, recognizing that effective public service requires not only experience, but also a willingness to continually learn, adapt, and improve; and

WHEREAS, Anita's commitment to service extends beyond the walls of government. For many years, she has generously dedicated her time and effort to activities and causes that promote the "community's well-being". Her service has included assisting individuals experiencing homelessness through homeless shelters and food kitchens, as well as participating in coastal cleanups and other community initiatives. Through these acts of service, she has demonstrated compassion for those facing difficult circumstances and a genuine concern for preserving and improving the island she calls home. Her willingness to give of herself beyond her professional responsibilities exemplifies the true spirit of volunteerism and public service; and

WHEREAS, throughout her career, Anita has also supported efforts to promote workplace morale, employee engagement, and a positive working environment. She has gained valuable knowledge and experience through participation in numerous conferences, training programs, and workplace initiatives designed to strengthen leadership, professional relationships, and organizational effectiveness. In 2009, she successfully completed the Executive Leadership Development Program (ELDP), commissioned by the U.S. Department of the Interior and facilitated by the Pacific and Virgin Islands Training Initiatives (PITI-VITI), a program managed by Graduate School USA. Through this distinguished leadership program, Anita further developed the skills and experience necessary to contribute to the continued development of qualified and capable professionals prepared to lead and serve the governments of the United States insular areas; and

WHEREAS, Anita's remarkable career stands as a testament to the value of perseverance, lifelong learning, and dedicated service. From her beginnings as an Accounting Clerk to her advancement as a Management Analyst III, she has built a career marked by steady professional growth and a sincere commitment to serving the people of Guam. Her contributions to the Department of Administration, her dedication to strengthening the public workforce, and her compassionate service to the community have positively touched the lives of many and have helped uphold the principles of good government and civic responsibility; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules of I Mina'trentai Ocho Na Liheslaturan Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of I Liheslaturan Guåhan and the people of Guam, recognize Anita Linda Manibusan Arile for thirty-two (32) years of dedicated service to the Government of Guam; and congratulate her on her retirement; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Anita Linda Manibusan Arile; and to the Honorable Lourdes A. Leon Guerrero, I Maga'hågan Guåhan.
