Comments:
1/ According to comments received on Bill 250-38 (COR), the Unified Judiciary of Guam notes that the bill is still under review. While no estimate can be provided at this time, the bill's requirement to update records and issue new notifications will require additional staff to review and process those obligations. Accordingly, the measure will result in personnel-related cost to the branch. Absent detailed information as to the additional personnel service requirements from the Judiciary, the Bureau is unable to provide an estimated cost impact to the Government of Guam should the Bill be enacted.
