Comments:
1/ According to comments received on Bill No. 317-38 (COR), the Unified Judiciary of Guam notes that it continues its review. Because the Bill contains numerous amendments to criminal laws, any fiscal impact to the Judiciary or the broader criminal justice system is difficult to accurately ascertain at this time. Some provisions may affect court operations, case processing, supervision, detention, or other criminal justice resources. However, the overall operational and financial impact cannot reasonably be determined until the Bill is implemented and its practical effects are evaluated. Absent detailed information as to the operation and financial impact from the Judiciary, the Bureau is unable to provide an estimated cost impact to the Government of Guam should the Bill be enacted.
