VII	Old Business A. 2025 RENEWALS 1. CVS/Caremark OR CF #11506 (NR-PCY045) Board members confirmed the presence of representatives from CVS, including C. Renfer and B. Convery, and inquired about the pharmacy’s Guam Controlled Substance Registration (CSR) license, during which it was clarified that the pharmacy currently holds a non-resident pharmacy license but not a local CSR. It was discussed that Guam law requires both a DEA license and a local CSR for dispensing controlled substances, and that non-resident pharmacies are generally unable to obtain a CSR from the Department of Public Health, effectively prohibiting the shipment of controlled substances to Guam from off-island pharmacies. The Board agreed to table the matter pending further consultation and advised the representatives to review Guam laws, noting potential violations if controlled substances are dispensed without proper licensure. The representatives sought clarification on whether additional information was required and inquired about the possibility of continuing operations by dispensing only non-controlled substances, to which the Board indicated that further guidance would be needed before proceeding. Additional discussion addressed compliance requirements, including use of the prescription drug monitoring program, patient identification and signature upon receipt of controlled substances, and general dispensing obligations. The pharmacy representatives provided an estimate of prior dispensing volume and clarified that their services involved standard retail medications rather than specialty drugs, while also noting uncertainty regarding whether patients served were located on military installations. The Board indicated it would further research regulatory considerations, including potential exemptions related to military facilities and prior licensing practices, and would follow up after consulting with appropriate authorities. Additional concerns were raised regarding patient care continuity, including prescription transfers, access to medications, and technological processes, while noting ongoing coordination with federal authorities on controlled substance compliance matters. Remains Tabled: M. Bowling

Charfauros was awarded the All-Island trophy, with medals presented to the top 10 bowlers.

Caasi dominates boys division

The boys division delivered another dramatic chapter in the ongoing rivalry between the league's top contenders.

Defending champion Lyo Sawada of the SACS Raiders dominated the three game qualifier, setting a new middle school record with a 638 series, highlighted by a blistering 264 game and an opening 220.

AMS Dragons' Nathan Caasi stayed within striking distance, finishing 47 pins behind with a high game of 227.

Raiders' Dylan Cruz surged late to secure the third seed and a spot in the stepladder.

The remainder of the top 10 featured SIFA Manta Rays' John Tumamak in 4th place, followed by SACS Raiders' Aryan Dewan in 5th.

A tie for 6th place went to Manta Rays' Silis Brown and Shayden Bukikosa, while HCA Eagles' Hyunjin Ji secured 8th.

AMS Dragons' Louie Jn Chapman finished 9th and SACS Raiders' Xavier Quinata rounded out the top 10.

The stepladder opened with Caasi defeating Cruz through steady spare conversions and a timely double, setting up a championship rematch with Sawada.

What followed was the most electrifying title match of the season.

Caasi came out firing, unleashing a six bagger while Sawada struggled to carry the ten pin despite hitting the pocket. Holding a 40 pin lead midway through the match, Caasi faltered with back to back errant shots, missing a 7 pin and a 6 10, giving Sawada a narrow opening.

The defending champion responded with a turkey, setting up a dramatic finish.

Needing a strike on his 11th ball to steal the title, Sawada sent a shot that drifted a board inside but held its line—only to finish slightly high, leaving a 4 pin and handing the championship to Caasi, who closed with a 235 game.
