RE: Thirty-Eighth Guam Legislature, Tenth Special Session

Hafa Adai Speaker Blas:

Today, I vetoed Substitute Bill No. 266-38 (COR), the Fiscal Year 2027 General Appropriations Act, because it materially underfunds critical healthcare, public safety, and human service programs following the Legislature's decision to reduce the Business Privilege Tax to four percent (4%) without providing a sustainable replacement for the resulting loss of recurring revenues.

Transmitted herewith is a revised Fiscal Year 2027 General Appropriations Act, which I am submitting for the Legislature's consideration. The proposed budget restores funding for critical governmental functions while maintaining fiscal balance through updated revenue projections and other responsible fiscal adjustments. It also preserves the vast majority of the miscellaneous and administrative provisions approved by the Legislature, reflecting the significant work already completed during the budget process.

Because the Government of Guam must have an enacted budget in place before the beginning of Fiscal Year 2027, timely legislative consideration of the attached measure is essential to ensure continuity of government operations and the uninterrupted delivery of essential public services.

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Organic Act of Guam, 48 U.S.C. § 1423h, I hereby call I Mina' Trentai Ocho na Liheslaturan Guåhan into special session to commence at 10:00 a.m. on August 10, 2026, at the Speaker Antonio R. Unpingco Legislative Session Hall in the Guam Congress Building, for the purpose of considering and acting upon the attached legislation. In accordance with 2 GCA § 1104, this session shall be designated as the "Thirty-Eighth Guam Legislature, Tenth Special Session."

16 property in foreign commerce shall not constitute a part of the measure 17 of the tax imposed. Although not constituting a part of the measure of 25 (3) Provided, that a manufacturer or producer engaging in the 26 business of selling his manufactured products at retail in Guam shall be

1 required to make returns of the gross proceeds of such retail sales and

11 deducted from the gross income of the taxpayer so much thereof as has been 12 included in the gross income earned from another taxpayer who is a contractor 13 as defined in § 26101(b) and who has already paid the tax levied under this 14 Subsection for goods and services that include the deductible gross income of

2 Construction Contract; provided, that there shall be deducted from the 3 gross income of the taxpayer so much thereof as has been included in

5 defined in § 26101(b) and who has already paid the tax levied under 6 this Subsection for goods and services that include the deductible gross 7 income of the taxpayer who is a contractor; provided, that any person

9 the person's return either the name and the contractor's license number
10 issued by the Guam Contractors License Board, or the Guam business 11 license number, or the registration number for a professional engineer,

15 Professional Engineers, Architects, and Land Surveyors of the person 16 paying the tax on the amount deducted by the person. This tax rate shall 17 be measured against the portion attributable to performance within 18 Guam.

19 For purposes of this Paragraph, "Military Buildup Construction
20 Contract" means any contract, task order, delivery order, purchase 21 order, agreement, or other contractual instrument, including any

9 Primary Contractor, as defined in § 26101(b), contracting directly with 10 the federal agency awarding the Military Buildup Construction
11 Contract. A Subcontractor, as defined in § 26101(b)(1), supplier, 12 vendor, consultant, or any other person that does not contract directly 13 with the awarding federal agency shall not be subject to the tax imposed
14 under this Paragraph solely by reason of performing work under a

21 owned.

22 (2) A person liable for the payment of taxes levied under this
