Re: Bill No. 1 (10-S), "AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE OPERATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE, LEGISLATIVE, AND JUDICIAL BRANCHES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF GUAM FOR FISCAL YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 30, 2027, MAKING OTHER APPROPRIATIONS, AND ESTABLISHING MISCELLANEOUS AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS."

Hāfa Adai Mr. Speaker,

I am allowing Bill No. 1 (10-S) to lapse into law without my signature. However, I am not taking this action because of any concern with the appropriations for Fiscal Year 2027. As I have repeatedly stated, the issue has never been about a particular rate of the Business Privilege Tax (BPT). From the beginning, my concern has been whether the essential services of the government of Guam are adequately funded so that the government can properly serve the People of Guam. I am satisfied that the Fiscal Year 2027 appropriations enacted by this bill accomplishes that goal.

I am allowing Bill No. 1 (10-S) to lapse into law despite my strong concerns regarding specific provisions contained in Chapter XII, Miscellaneous Provisions. Several of these provisions remove significant financial and administrative oversight from the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) and concentrate substantial authority in a single government official. These provisions are inconsistent with the repeated claims of members of this Legislature that they seek greater accountability and transparency in government operations and in the expenditure of public funds, and I cannot in good conscience sign a bill that removes many of the checks and balances put in place to protect the People of Guam by empowering one person, the Attorney General, with almost limitless authority in hiring and procurement with almost no oversight whatsoever.

Section 21 allows the Attorney General to fill positions through contractual agreements with private individuals, including positions involving services that would otherwise be provided by classified employees. The OAG is specifically exempted from the general restriction against contracting for services customarily provided by the employees in the classified service.

Re: Bill No. 1 (10-S)

Section 21 becomes more troubling when read together with Section 79, which exempts the OAG from the centralized accounting system of the government of Guam. This exemption gives the Attorney General greater control over funds appropriated by the Legislature while removing significant external oversight of those expenditures. Section 79 also removes requirements for other government officials or agencies to review or approve contracts entered into by the Attorney General. By removing the OAG from the centralized accounting system, the Legislature has also removed the requirement for the Governor to approve OAG contracts.

Section 81 further reduces accountability by exempting the OAG from procurement regulations, the involvement of the General Services Agency, and requirements that employees engaged in procurement activities receive appropriate training. This provision is particularly concerning because litigation has demonstrated failures by the Attorney General and OAG employees to comply with procurement requirements. The appropriate response to those failures is to provide the necessary training and to require compliance with the procurement laws that the Attorney General seeks to enforce against other government agencies. The answer should not be to exempt the OAG from those requirements so that a failure to understand or comply with the procurement law will no longer limit the expenditure of public funds.

Similar exemptions are provided to certain autonomous agencies, including the Government of Guam Retirement Fund, Guam Community College, the Guam Department of Education, and the University of Guam. There is, however, an important difference. Each of these entities has a board of directors, trustees, or another governing body that reviews and approves contracts and significant expenditures made by agency officials. No comparable institutional check exists within the OAG. Under these provisions, the Attorney General alone would exercise substantial authority over the expenditure of public funds.

No government official should be given such broad financial authority without meaningful oversight. By enacting Sections 21, 79, and 81 together, the Legislature has insulated significant financial and contracting decisions of the OAG from many of the checks and controls that apply throughout the government of Guam. The Legislature has effectively created a fourth branch of government in which a single official exercises substantial authority over public funds without the institutional oversight imposed on other agencies and officials.

Members of this Legislature have repeatedly stated that their goal is to make the government of Guam more transparent and accountable so that the people of Guam can know how their tax dollars are being spent. The provisions enacted in Chapter XII move in the opposite direction. Transparency and accountability cannot depend upon which official is spending the money. Those principles must apply equally throughout the government.

The people of Guam have a right to expect that every public official entrusted with public funds will be subjected to meaningful oversight, appropriate financial controls, and the laws governing the expenditure of those funds. No office and no individual public official should be exempted from that fundamental principle of a responsible government.

7 rule, regulation, executive order, administrative policy, personnel rule, or any
8 charter, enabling act, policy, or governing authority of any department, agency, 9 instrumentality, autonomous agency, or semi-autonomous agency of the 10 Government of Guam, the following emergency overtime payment and 11 accountability requirements shall apply. Compliance with this Section shall be a 12 condition governing the expenditure of funds appropriated or otherwise authorized 13 by this Act. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to authorize expenditures in 14 excess of appropriations or to conflict with applicable federal law.

15 (a) Definition of Declared Emergency. For purposes of this
16 Section, “declared emergency” means a declaration of emergency issued
17 pursuant to the laws of Guam.

18 (b) Emergency Overtime Prompt Payment. All departments,
19 agencies, instrumentalities, autonomous agencies, semi-autonomous
20 agencies, and other entities of the Government of Guam expending funds
21 appropriated by this Act shall ensure that overtime compensation for hours
22 worked and approved or otherwise authorized in accordance with applicable
23 law, personnel rules, or a collective bargaining agreement as emergency
24 overtime in response to a declared emergency, disaster response, typhoon
25 preparation, typhoon recovery, emergency restoration operations, or other
26 emergency activities undertaken pursuant to a declaration of emergency
27 issued under the laws of Guam is processed and paid on the employee’s

1 regular payday for the pay period in which the overtime compensation can
2 reasonably be calculated. If the amount of overtime compensation cannot 3 reasonably be calculated or processed by that payday, payment shall be made
4 as soon thereafter as practicable, but no later than the next regularly scheduled
5 payday after the overtime compensation can reasonably be calculated.
6 Nothing in this subsection shall require payment before the overtime has been 7 properly approved or otherwise authorized in accordance with applicable law,
8 personnel rules, or a collective bargaining agreement, and any documentation
9 required by law, personnel rules, or a collective bargaining agreement for 10 payment of such overtime has been submitted. Nothing in this subsection shall 11 be construed to authorize payment later than any earlier deadline required by 12 applicable federal law, Guam law, an applicable collective bargaining
13 agreement, or an enforceable employment agreement.

14 (c) Prohibition Against Delay Due to Budget Shortfall. No
15 department, agency, instrumentality, autonomous agency, or semi-
16 autonomous agency shall delay payment of overtime compensation lawfully
17 earned and approved or otherwise authorized in accordance with applicable
18 law, personnel rules, or a collective bargaining agreement solely because of 19 insufficient budgeted overtime funding, exhausted personnel appropriations,
20 or the anticipated receipt of federal disaster reimbursement. If available
21 appropriations are insufficient to satisfy such obligations, the affected entity
22 shall comply with the certification requirements of this subsection, and I
23 Maga'håga/Maga'låhi shall comply with the requirements of subsections (d)
24 and (e), as applicable. The existence of a funding deficiency shall not excuse
25 compliance with the reporting, certification, resolution plan, or supplemental 26 appropriation requirements of this Section.

1 (d) Certification of Unpaid Emergency Overtime. If sufficient
2 appropriated or lawfully available funds are unavailable to satisfy emergency
3 overtime obligations within the payment period required under subsection (b),
4 the head of the affected entity shall, within ten (10) working days after 5 determining such funding deficiency exists, submit a written certification to I
6 Maga'hågan/Maga'låhen Guåhan, the Director of Administration, and the 7 Speaker of I Liheslaturan Guåhan identifying:

13 (4) the reason payment has not been completed;

14 (5) the amount of funding required to satisfy the obligation;

15 (6) any available funding source, including federal disaster
16 reimbursement; and

17 (7) the anticipated date payment will be completed.

18 (e) I Maga'håga/Maga'låhi Guåhan's Emergency Overtime
19 Resolution Plan. Within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of a 20 certification pursuant to subsection (c), I Maga'håga/Maga'låhi Guåhan shall 21 submit a written Emergency Overtime Resolution Plan to the Speaker of I
22 Liheslaturan Guåhan identifying:

23 (1) the total unpaid emergency overtime obligation;

24 (2) the proposed source of funds, including lawful budget
25 transfers, available appropriations, federal reimbursement, or 26 supplemental appropriation;

27 (3) the actions being taken to ensure payment;

1 (4) the anticipated payment date to affected employees; and

2 (5) any legislative action required.

3 (f) Supplemental Appropriation Request. Upon determining that 4 overtime obligations incurred as a result of a declared emergency exceed the 5 appropriations available to an agency for such purpose, I
6 Maga'håga/Maga'låhi Guåhan shall, at the earliest practicable opportunity,
7 transmit to the Speaker of I Liheslaturan Guåhan a written request for a
8 supplemental appropriation. The request shall include:

9 (1) the total amount of supplemental funding requested;

10 (2) the agency or agencies for which the appropriation is 11 sought;

12 (3) a description of the declared emergency giving rise to the 13 overtime obligations;

14 (4) the amount of overtime expenditures incurred and 15 projected to be incurred;

16 (5) the amount of appropriations available for such 17 expenditures and the resulting funding deficiency;

18 (6) the proposed source or sources of funding for the 19 supplemental appropriation, including any available revenues,
20 transfers, reversions, or other financing authorized by law;

21 (7) the projected fiscal impact of the supplemental 22 appropriation on the General Fund and any affected special or federal 23 funds;

24 (8) the amount of any anticipated federal or other
25 reimbursement and the estimated timetable for receipt thereof, if 26 applicable; and

1 (9) such additional budgetary, financial, and operational
2 information as is reasonably necessary to enable I Liheslaturan Guåhan
3 to evaluate the request.

4 (g) Compensatory Time and Overtime Payment. No employee
5 shall be required to accept compensatory time off in lieu of overtime
6 compensation solely because of an agency's failure to adequately budget for 7 emergency overtime. Compensatory time may only be provided where 8 authorized by applicable federal law, Guam law, personnel rules, or an 9 applicable collective bargaining agreement.

10 (h) Interest on Unpaid Overtime. Nothing in this Section shall be
11 construed to alter or impair any employee's rights under 4 GCA § 6221,
12 including any entitlement to interest or other relief provided by law.

13 (i) Quarterly Legislative Reporting. Each department, agency,
14 instrumentality, autonomous agency, and semi-autonomous agency subject to 15 this Section shall submit a written report to the Speaker of I Liheslaturan
16 Guåhan no later than twenty (20) days after the end of each quarter 17 identifying:

- 19 (2) the fiscal year in which the overtime was incurred;
- 20 (3) the division or organizational unit where overtime
21 occurred;
- 22 (4) the reason for delayed payment;
- 23 (5) the legal authority governing the overtime obligation;
- 24 (6) the status of any funding request, transfer, supplemental 25 appropriation, or reimbursement; and
- 26 (7) the anticipated date all outstanding overtime obligations
27 will be satisfied.

(j) Employee Rights Preserved. Nothing in this Section shall diminish, waive, or impair any employee's right to overtime compensation under applicable federal law, Guam law, or enforceable employment agreements.

(k) Applicability. This Section shall apply to all departments, agencies, instrumentalities, autonomous agencies, and semi-autonomous agencies expending funds appropriated or otherwise authorized by this Act.
