Dear Sus:

We probably don't send enough letters like this, but we want to acknowledge outstanding progress in one of GEPA's programs. This year GEPA has conducted 12 SPCC inspections and is on track to complete several more by year's end. The inspections and the presence they represent are, without question, deterrents and positive forces in preventing oil spills on Guam. Domingo Cabusao has done a great job in training Manny Minas and building GEPA's capacity in this area. Chris Lund has provided leadership and created a positive work atmosphere where individuals can realize their potential. These are all indicators of growth and maturation at GEPA and we applaud them.

Please extend our appreciation to Chris, Domingo and Manny for a job well done.

Sincerely,

Norman L. Lovelace
