Håfa Adai, Speaker Blas,

The Judiciary of Guam respectfully submits this memorandum along with the Unclassified Appointment Report prepared in accordance with 4 GCA § 2201, et seq. (Public Law 38-37). As required, the Judiciary must compile, maintain, and transmit a report of all unclassified appointments to the Speaker of I Liheslaturan Guåhan.

Unclassified appointments are governed by standards established by the Judicial Council. In 2005, through Resolution No. JC05-007, the Council adopted four standards that define when positions may be placed in the unclassified service, such as positions of a confidential nature, those involving policy-making or formulation, temporary or seasonal positions, and professional or technical roles requiring skills not readily available in Guam's labor market and recognized under U.S. Department of Labor occupational listings.

Since their adoption in 2005, the Judiciary has consistently and continuously applied these standards for more than twenty-one years, ensuring a uniform, transparent, and accountable personnel structure across the Judicial Branch. This longstanding adherence demonstrates the Judiciary's commitment to principled and legally grounded personnel practices.

Should you have any questions or concerns, I may be contacted at (671) 475-3544.

Senseramente,

DANIELLE T. ROSETE
