	completion, and based on the review conducted, she had met all requirements for renewal. Motion to Approve: A. Lape; 2nd: D. Calvo. ii. Julio Gomez – LCSW A. Lape noted that there had been a concern regarding an item on J. Gomez’s attestation. K. Lee subsequently contacted J. Gomez, who clarified that the incorrect response was an oversight on his part when reviewing the question. Based on his email response to HPLO, no further concerns were identified regarding the attestation, and all other renewal requirements had been met. Motion to Approve: A. Lape; 2nd: J. Baleto.			Unanimously Approved
IX	New Business A. Complaint: GBSW-CO-2026-002 Based on A. Lape’s initial review of the complaint, a potential conflict of interest existed due to the complainant’s prior relationship with the Head Start program where A. Lape is employed. The matter was also discussed with D. Calvo, who indicated that her employment with Catholic Social Services, in which she serves as a contractor for the Department of Public Health, created a potential conflict because the complaint involved Child Protective Services. Accordingly, both board members determined that they should recuse themselves from the matter due to the potential appearance of a conflict of interest. It was therefore indicated that the complaint would be assigned to J. Baleto for review. A. Lape recommended that Jesse consult with HPLO following the meeting and provide the Board with further input regarding the matter. A. Consideration of Applications for Initial Licensure: i. Seungkyoung Kim – LBSW A. Lape reported that Mr. Kim had submitted an application for licensure, and the initial review indicated no concerns with his attestations. He had also submitted all required letters of recommendation. Mr. Kim holds a Bachelor of Science in Psychology and Social Work from a university in South Korea and was previously licensed as a social worker in South Korea. He is currently employed as a social worker with DOC; however, he had not submitted an evaluation of his foreign educational transcript by a qualified organization to establish its equivalency and validity for purposes of meeting the applicable U.S. educational requirements. A. Lape further noted that Mr. Kim holds a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice, obtained in 2020 from a university in Indiana, as well as a Master of Science in Clinical Addictions Counseling from an Indiana university. Based on the review, it was indicated that Mr. Kim may meet the requirements for licensure by exception based on his non-social-work degrees in Criminal Justice and Clinical Addictions Counseling; however, he had not submitted the required 50 CEUs applicable to applicants qualifying through a non-social-work degree. A. Lape suggested that Mr. Kim be contacted to determine whether he is willing to have his bachelor’s degree in Psychology and Social Work from South Korea evaluated by an appropriate U.S.-based	J. Baleto GBSW	1108	On-Going, Pending Consult with HPLO Tabled, Pending Further Review and Submission of Necessary Documents

	credential evaluation organization. If he does not pursue the foreign degree evaluation, he may continue the application process based on his Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice, provided that he submits the required 50 CEUs for applicants holding a non-social-work degree. D. Calvo agreed with the recommendation to have Mr. Kim's foreign degree evaluated to determine whether it meets the educational standards and requirements applicable to U.S.-based universities. It was further noted that, although Mr. Kim currently holds a position as a Social Worker I, his existing degree does not specifically constitute a social work degree for purposes of the licensure requirements; therefore, he would need to submit the required educational documentation associated with the non-social-work degree pathway. A. Lape agreed and would speak to K. Aguilar offline, as Mr. Kim may be eligible to receive some CEUs under the Social Work Practice Act based on his additional degrees, including his degree in Clinical Addictions Counseling. The applicable law would need to be reviewed to determine the number of credits, if any, that may be applied. J. Baleto added that Mr. Kim may be able to obtain additional CEUs by submitting documentation of training completed within the past two years, provided that the training falls within an applicable area of social work practice. A. Lape suggested that Mr. Kim may not have been aware of the alternative licensure pathway or the potential to satisfy some of the CEU requirements through qualifying education and training. She further noted that, since obtaining his Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice in 2020, Mr. Kim may have completed additional training over the subsequent years for which certificates of completion could potentially be submitted if he is unable or unwilling to have his Korean transcript evaluated. Based on these considerations, A. Lape recommended that Mr. Kim's application, be tabled at this time pending further review and submission of the necessary documentation. ii. Lauren Taylor Flores – LCSW J. Baleto and D. Calvo, were unable to review L. Flores's application prior to the meeting. A. Lape noted that she was unable to review the application due to her required recusal because L. Flores is her daughter. Accordingly, consideration of L. Flores's application was tabled until next month. B. Consideration of Application for Renewal of Licensure: i. Hope Cortez – LCSW Motion to Approve: A. Lape; 2nd: D. Calvo.			Tabled, Until Next Month

North Korea weightlifter sets 3 world records for Asian Games gold

AFP

North Korea's Ri Song Gum gave her country their first gold of the Asian Games on Wednesday in style, setting three world records in the women's 49kg class in Nagoya.

In the process she joined an elite club of just four weightlifters who have won three Asian Games gold medals.

Ri hauled 94kg above her head in the opening snatch discipline, one kilogramme more than the previous world standard mark of 93kg.

She then smashed the clean and jerk world mark of 115kg twice by hoisting 116kg and then 121kg.

Her total of 215kg obliterated the old world mark by 7kg.

India's Mirabai Chanu, the silver medallist at the Tokyo Olympics in 2021, finally won an Asian Games medal at the third time of asking.

She had a total of 198kg after a snatch of 87kg and clean and jerk of 111kg while Indonesia's Diana Tri Wijayana took bronze on 191kg, with 88kg and 103kg respectively.

Ri became only the fourth lifter, and first woman, to win three Asian Games weightlifting golds.

She joined Iran's Mohammad Nassiri (1966-74), South Korea's Kim Tae-hyun (1990-98) and Iran's Behdad Salimi (2010-2018) who all won three golds. No one has ever won four.

Bathan settled for silver, while Cheng and Carabeo earned bronze medals.

Manny Tagle Jr. of Yigo secured the Men Senior Singles gold medal after defeating top seed Ng Yew Hup of Subang Jaya in yet another one ball tie-breaker. Tagle rolled a nine pin against Ng's six pin after splitting their matches (201-172, 195-201).

Tagle earlier eliminated third seed Sam Lam of New Territories with a nine pin to Lam's three in their semi-final tie-breaker.

Ng advanced to the final by defeating fourth seed Rick Torres of Dededo, 2-0 (155-132, 195-194). Ng took silver, while Lam and Torres earned bronze medals.

Second seed Poziah Atan delivered Subang Jaya's first gold medal of the championship with a 2-0 victory (206-191, 191-185) over fourth seed Gigie Maria Rhoda Laurel of Pasay in the Women Senior Singles final.

Atan reached the final by defeating third seed Sheila Bangs of Dededo, 2-0 (181-133, 140-138). Laurel advanced after eliminating top seed Datin Rakiah Ali of Subang Jaya in a one ball tie-breaker, striking against Rakiah's nine pin after splitting their matches (175-169, 197-132).

Laurel earned silver, while Datin Rakiah and Bangs received bronze medals.

Earlier, Datin Rakiah topped the four game preliminaries with 792, followed by Atan (744), Bangs (727), and Laurel (710) completing the top four.

AIBC Council Members Mr. Mohd Farid Khalid and Mr. Mervyn Foo presented medals to the winners across all four Single divisions.

Competition now shifts to the Doubles events, with the Men and Men Senior divisions.

The top four Men Doubles pairs and top four Men Senior Doubles pairs will advance to the Baker-style medal rounds on Sept. 23. Women and Women Senior Doubles qualifying will also take place on Sept. 23, with the top four pair in each division progressing immediately to their medal rounds.

The Team of Four event will be contested on Sept. 24 to 25.

Paulino punched in the Cougars' first touchdown of the game, setting the tone for what would become a strong offensive performance.

The Cougars quickly added to their lead when Maya Torre intercepted a Career Tech pass and raced down the field for her first touchdown of the game.

Career Tech struggled to find its rhythm offensively, but Menia Henry emerged as a standout, making several key defensive plays and disrupting passes intended for Academy receivers.

Academy's offense continued to roll as Molly Shae Dela Cruz found the end zone twice with two touchdowns. On the other side of the ball, the Cougars' defense kept the pressure on Career Tech, shutting down passing and rushing attempts.

Taysia Tui Tui delivered two big defensive plays with a pair of interceptions, helping Academy take a commanding 40-0 lead into halftime.

Career Tech came out determined in the second half and broke through when Henry scored the team's first touchdown of the game.

Academy, however, continued its offensive attack. Madison Atoigue added two touchdowns, while Kenadie Paulino also found the end zone.

The Cougars put the finishing touches on the historic victory when Maya Torre intercepted the ball late in the game. A successful two-point conversion helped seal Academy's 66-6 victory.

Congratulations to the Academy Cougars on earning their first victory of the inaugural congratulations being part of this weekend.

Super Bowl champion Seahawks their first loss of the season, and snap Seattle's 12-game winning streak.

Seattle's loss came despite their own star quarterback Sam Darnold returning from injury to pass for 379 yards and four touchdowns, with two interceptions.

Mariota sent early touchdown passes to Rachad White and Treyton Burks, before his 30-yard punt to Terry McLaurin opened a 14-point advantage.

Seattle fought back to 24-24. But after a Commanders field goal, Darnold's pass was picked by Kain Medrano, a special teams player and backup linebacker, who raced 50 yards to make it 33-24.

Seahawks pulled back a touchdown but Washington held on.

"That was unbelievable ... the more that adversity hits, the more that circumstances pin us against the wall, these guys find a way," said Mariota.

Tight finishes

On a Sunday packed with tight finishes, Jahmyr Gibbs and the Detroit Lions saw off a spirited Jets fightback, winning 31-24.

New York's Garrett Wilson took a superb 4th down catch from Geno Smith that was ruled a touchdown on video review, tying the game 24-24.

But the drive was shortfrom a 16-0 half-time deficit to score a thrilling 30-26 defeat of the Los Angeles Rams.

Denver quarterback Bo Nix stretched into the end zone for a close-range touchdown with 47 seconds remaining for what turned out to be the winning score.

Earlier, Cleveland quarterback DeShaun Watson, making his home season debut after being booed by his own fans in the off-season, led the Browns to a last-gasp 21-18 win over Carolina.
