FY 2024 - SUCCESS STORIES

Naftan Manaina-ta Funding

After several years of lobbying for funding, the Guam SHPO finally got the 37th Guam Legislature to appropriate $5 million to construct and conduct the inventory of the Naftan Manaina-ta - Guam's national reburial monument. For over 100 years, more than 3000 ancient CHamoru remains have been unearthed and placed in museums in Hawaii and Guam. Some 40 years after initial local legislation that recognized the need for a national monument, the funding to finally work on this important structure was completed in Public Law 37-42. The Guam SHPO now will work on the procurement of services in 2025 for this important project.

Reburial Ceremonies

Guam SHPO conducted and led five (5) reburial ceremonies in 2024, the most ever in any calendar year. The five locations were:1) Tarague Beach (US Air Force property)2) Mogfog/Andy South (US Marines property)3) Pago Bay Estates (private property)4) Camp Blaz (US Marines property)5) Ipan (local government easement) It is important to note that this year was the first that SHPO implemented its new Reburial Plan, requiring ancient remains to be reburied in muslin cloth and woven baskets into an earthen environment. This changed out the previous western influence of fiberglass boxes in a concrete tomb.

SHPO Liaison Acquisitions

Guam SHPO was able to sustain a senior archaeologist through the DoD Liaison program due to the massive military buildup on Guam with the Marine Corp and Missile Defense Agency incoming. Our office also acquired a local historian under the same program. This position, initially not in a Programmatic Agreement, was justified through several consultations with Joint Region Marianas.
