UOG Tritons win Kustomize Basketball Tournament

Pacific Daily News

The University of Guam Men's Basketball Team won the 8 team Kustomize Basketball Tournament over the weekend, defeating the PK Ballers 43-40 in the finals of the tournament on Sunday night in the UOG Calvo Field House.

UOG earned their spot in the finals by defeating Nazzu in the semi-finals on Sunday afternoon with a 29-23 win.

The Tritons went 3-0 during pool play with a win on Friday night over Phileo 38-33 and two wins on Saturday, 53-36 over Lagoonz and a victory over the 4Stars.

The Tritons were 5-0 for the tournament and Ralph Macaldo was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player for UOG.

Report: NBA close to picking new $12-13B Vegas team owners

AFP

The NBA will choose owners for a new Las Vegas team "in the very near future," with a whopping $12-13 billion price tag for the franchise rights plus the cost of a new arena, ESPN reported Tuesday.

The basketball league is currently eyeing two new teams in Las Vegas and Seattle, bringing the total number of NBA clubs to 32, potentially as soon as 2028.

According to ESPN, a shortlist of three bidders remains for the Las Vegas team, including one bid spearheaded by Walmart heiress Nancy Walton Laurie.

Another is led by Canadian billionaire Steve Apostolopoulos, and a third by Vegas Golden Knights ice hockey team owner Bill Foley.

The NBA Board of Governors voted to explore the Las Vegas and Seattle markets in March, with formal approval for the expansions expected by December.

MARK THOMPSON/TOWNNEWS.COM CONTENT EXCHANGE

Nancy Walton Laurie and Bill Laurie, at right pictured with NFL star Patrick Mahomes and Brittany Mahomes, are among the NBA Las Vegas franchise bidders.

A purpose-built new basketball arena at the southern end of the Strip has been widely mooted for the Las Vegas bid, though Knights owner Foley has also proposed adapting his NHL team's T-Mobile Arena.

Las Vegas already hosts the off-season NBA Summer League, and the T-Mobile Arena hosted the semi-finals and finals of the first three editions of the mid-season NBA Cup.

But the city — which boasts the NFL Raiders franchise and will soon welcome an MLB side — has never had its own NBA team.

The Seattle team would be expected to play at the Climate Pledge Arena, home to the Kraken ice hockey team and on the site of the home of the former Seattle SuperSonics NBA team, which relocated to Oklahoma City in 2008.

A decision on Seattle team owners would take place at a later date.

Wildcard series openers later find Boston at the New York Yankees in the AL and the Chicago Cubs at San Diego in the NL.

At Houston, the White Sox took the lead in the first inning when Sam Antonacci walked, reached third on an error by Astros first baseman Christian Walker and scored on Munetaka Murakami's sacrifice fly.

Astros starting pitcher A.J. Blubaugh was replaced by Bryan King after 2/3 of an inning and the White Sox took advantage.

Chicago's Braden Montgomery and Chase Meidroth singled to open the second inning, Colson Montgomery was hit by a pitch to load the bases and Antonacci followed with a two-run single to left for a 3-0 lead.

Kyle Teel singled to reload the bases and King was lifted for Miguel Ullola, who got three outs without allowing another run.

Colson Montgomery's solo homer in the fourth gave Chicago a 4-0 lead and Meidroth's bases-loaded single in the fifth made it 5-0.

Houston's Nelson Velazquez smacked a two-run homer in the fifth.

The Astros' Bennett Sousa allowed a Sox run on a wild pitch in the seventh but an error by Chicago third baseman Miguel Vargas in the eighth allowed a run for Houston to create the final margin.

The Astros, 5-2 against the White Sox this year, qualified for the playoffs on the season's last day and at 81-81 had the worst record of any post-season team in history.

KEVIN C. COX/TOWNNEWS.COM CONTENT EXCHANGE

Atlanta's Austin Riley reacts after smashing a three-run home run to give the Braves a 5-3 victory over Philadelphia in the Major League Baseball playoffs.

Sale strikes out nine

Atlanta went 9-4 against the Phillies in the regular season and won the NL East division by six games over Philadelphia.

Kyle Schwarber walked and raced home on Alec Bohm's double in the first inning to lift Philadelphia ahead, but Atlanta equalized in the second when Albies walked, took third on a fielder's choice and scored on Mike Yastrzemski's single.

Atlanta grabbed the lead in the sixth when Harris singled and scored on an Albies triple but a two-run triple to right field by J.T. Realmuto in the seventh gave the Phillies a 3-2 edge — setting the stage for Riley's game-winning blast.

Braves pitcher Chris Sale, a 37-year-old American left-hander, made his longest career playoff start, striking out nine over 6 1/3 innings.

Sharks

the Geckos ability to establish a consistent offensive rhythm. The Sharks repeatedly pressured the Geckos and took advantage of opportunities created by their defense.

While the Geckos continued fighting for opportunities on offense, their defense also kept the Sharks from finding an easy path to the end zone, forcing them to work for every yard.

On Sharks offense, Jayson Parr helped move the ball while connecting with Kelly for important plays and first downs.

Meanwhile, the Geckos continued to push back with their running game and passing attack. Their persistence eventually paid off when Ashtyn Gumataotao broke loose for a 70-yard touchdown, putting the Geckos on the scoreboard and giving their crowd another reason to erupt. The touchdown sparked new momentum for the Geckos as both teams continued to battle, refusing to give up.

Sharks take control in the 4th quarter

The Geckos and Sharks entered the second half locked in a close battle. The Geckos opened the third quarter with strong defense, led by Ty Leon Guerrero and Jryan Macias, who pressured the Sharks and made several key tackles.

The Sharks continued to fight near the goal line, but Sahi Santos came up with a big tackle to stop the Geckos from scoring.

Both teams traded possessions and turnovers throughout the quarter. Kelly broke through the Geckos defense for a first down, while Leon Guerrero continued making important tackles to keep Sanchez from gaining momentum.

After Sharks punt, Geckos returner Jaydin Martinez took off with the ball, gaining roughly 50 yards and giving them a strong field position.

The Geckos opened the fourth quarter with a touchdown from Jayce Sablan, but they were unable to convert the extra point. Sanchez quickly answered with a big offensive play, tying the game 13–13 and bringing the intensity to another level.

With about four minutes left, the Sharks defense began taking control. Santos recorded multiple sacks as the Geckos struggled with bad snaps, putting even more pressure on their offense.

Kelly then finished the drive with a touchdown, putting Sanchez ahead 19–13. The Sharks followed with a successful two-point conversion, extending their lead to 21–13.

The Geckos continued fighting until the final seconds, but Sanchez came up with an interception to stop one of the Geckos passing attempts. The Geckos later moved the ball past midfield with a pass to Kaden Medler, but the Sharks defense continued to apply pressure.

A late delay-of-game penalty pushed the Geckos back as the clock continued to run, making their comeback attempt even more difficult. The Sharks defensive pressure and ability to capitalize on turnovers allowed the Sharks to hold onto their 21–13 lead, securing a statement victory over the defending champions.

Players of the Game

Sanchez head coach Rich Camacho reflected on the significance of the win, especially with the Sharks facing the defending champions.

"It's big. This is a big win, against the former champions. We're coming out strong. We're all young, and we're doing our best too. With the situation at the school, we're still doing our best to get these boys out and play hard."

Players of the game Jude Kelly and Sahi Santos both played major roles on defense while also contributing to Sanchez's offensive success.

When asked about GW's offense, Kelly said, "Their offense is pretty strong. We just had to execute what our coaches told us." He also emphasized the importance of taking the game one play at a time and executing when the team needed it most.

Santos, one of the former Okkodo players now playing for Sanchez, also shared his thoughts on the team's new nickname, "Bullsharks."

"Very good, I like it. It's like a mix and a mixture of Bulldogs and Sharks and how our team can bring two teams together and make it stronger."

Santos added that approximately six to seven former Bulldogs players are now affiliated with the Sharks.

With the combination of the two programs continuing to build chemistry, the Bullsharks showed on Saturday night that they are ready to compete and they did it by taking down the defending champions under the lights.

VI	OLD BUSINESS	a) Rules and Regulations: (Ongoing) A. Taitano-Sablan noted that a work session had been conducted to review and further develop the regulations, during which those in attendance were assigned sections to expand upon. A subsequent follow-up work session was planned but was unable to take place. The Board discussed rescheduling the final work session for the following Monday and indicated that J. Blas would be contacted to confirm availability. Clarification was also requested regarding whether the regulations could proceed to the next stage if the Board considered the work session complete. B. Sablan clarified that		GBBC	0936	On-Going, Noted the proposed regulations must first be presented and approved during a Board meeting, after which they could proceed to the next stage of the process, including a public hearing. The Board therefore agreed to coordinate with J. Blas to schedule the final work session for the following Monday and to notify S. Manibusan to confirm scheduling.

	b) Complaints
	1. GBBC-CO-2026-02 - Date received: 05/29/26 After carefully reviewing the complaint, R. Santos expressed concern that the complainant's specific requested outcome was not clear and discussed the possibility of advising the complainant to pursue other legal actions. A. Taitano-Sablan recommended that R. Santos speak directly with the complainant first to obtain clarification of what it is the complainant is seeking. S. Manibusan agreed to contact the complainant and arrange a meeting. R. Santos noted his availability on Tuesday or Thursday with morning times being preferred. The Board anticipated that the meeting would provide additional information to assist in determining the appropriate next steps.	R. Santos		On-Going, Noted
	2. GBBC-CO-2026-03 – Date received: 06/05/26 A. Taitano-Sablan reported that the complaint remained under preliminary review and that the supporting documents were still being examined. She indicated that she would notify S. Manibusan if meetings needed to be scheduled as part of the investigation and noted that the investigation remained in its early stages.	A. Taitano-Sablan		On-Going, Under Preliminary Review
	3. GBBC-CO-2026-04 - Date received: 07/05/26 J. Blas was not present at the meeting, the Board proceeded to the next agenda item.	J. Blas		On-Going, J. Blas Not Present
	c) Applications for Apprentice
	1. 1. Muoi Thi Vo Nguyen – Manicurist A. Taitano-Sablan noted that there had been no update regarding the matter, as it remained pending the completion of the third-party general evaluation. Motion to Table: R.. Santos; 2nd: M. Tiong.	GBBC		Tabled
	2. John Paul N. Cadaviz – Cosmetologist The Board noted that, as part of the application review process, the supervisor's license and the establishment license for the applicant's intended place of employment are verified. It was determined that the establishment does not			Tabled currently have a valid license; therefore, the application for an apprentice license cannot be approved unless the applicant changes the intended place of employment or the establishment renews its license. Motion to Table: M. Tiong; 2nd: R. Santos.

	3. Vantri Green – Manicurist The Board noted that the pending examination application had been submitted; however, it was received after the deadline for inclusion in the Board meeting. Motion to Table to Next Meeting: M. Tiong; 2nd: R. Santos.			Tabled, To Next Meeting
	4. Ava San Nicolas – Cosmetologist M. Tiong noted that A. San Nicolas has not yet submitted an application for examination; therefore, her application for an apprentice license cannot be approved until she submits the required examination application. Motion to Table: M. Tiong; 2nd: R. Santos.			Tabled
	1. Laurenz E.C. Gico – Barber Stylist The Board noted that the applicant's examination was still pending and that the application could be approved once the examination requirement was satisfied. However, A. Taitano-Sablan directed S. manibusan that restrictions be placed on the applicant's apprentice permit because the supervising individual is licensed only as a cosmetologist and is therefore not authorized to supervise barbering services involving shaving or straight-razor techniques. Accordingly, while apprenticing under the current supervisor, the applicant will be prohibited from performing any straight-razor shaving or barbering services requiring such supervision. The restriction will apply only during the apprenticeship period and may no longer be applicable once the applicant successfully completes the examination and obtains full licensure. Motion to Approve with the Mentioned Restrictions: R. Santos; 2nd: M. Tiong.			Approved with the Mentioned Restrictions
	d) Applications for Examination
	1. Muoi Thi Vo Nguyen – Manicurist. A. Taitano-Sablan noted that there had been no update regarding the matter, as it remained pending the completion of the third-party general evaluation. Motion to Table: R.. Santos; 2nd: M. Tiong.	GBBC		Tabled

Agenda Item		Discussion/Decision	Responsible party	Reporting time frame	Status
		3. Jolas S. Deveas – Instructor A. Taitano-Sablan acknowledged receipt of a letter from legal representation and determined that additional time was needed to review the letter and the statutes referenced therein. The matter was tabled and would be placed on the agenda for the following month's meeting to allow the Board members sufficient time to review and research the cited statutory provisions. The Board members were requested to independently examine the letter and verify the referenced statutes prior to further discussion at the next meeting. Jolas De Veas was present and requested clarification regarding when a decision would be made concerning the matter. A. Taitano-Sablan explained that the letter submitted by legal counsel was received after the current meeting agenda had already been published and, therefore, could not be discussed during the current meeting. The Board confirmed that the matter would be placed on the agenda for the following month's meeting, at which time the submitted letter and the legal references contained therein would be discussed. A. Taitano-Sablan clarified that while the discussion would definitely occur at the next meeting, a final decision could not be guaranteed by that time, as the Board would first need to conduct its review and discussion before reaching a decision. Jolas De Veas also asked whether legal counsel would be present at the next meeting, and A. Taitano-Sablan explained that the discussion would be based on the materials already submitted by his legal counsel; however, Jolas De Veas could arrange for his legal counsel to be present on his end if he wanted additional clarification or to answer any questions he might have. Motion to Table: R. Santos; 2nd: M. Tiong.			Tabled
