Re: Bill No. 175-38 (COR), "AN ACT TO AMEND §§ 61541(b), (c), AND (f); AND TO ADD A NEW § 61548 ALL TO CHAPTER 61, TITLE 21, GUAM CODE ANNOTATED, RELATIVE TO MAKING PRACTICABLE IMPROVEMENTS TO GUAM'S SIGN LAWS."

Håfa Adai Mr. Speaker,

Businesses throughout Guam rely on signs to connect with customers, advertise their services, and share important information. However, outdated and confusing regulations have created unnecessary obstacles for businesses and organizations while making enforcement more difficult. Bill No. 175-38 (COR) modernizes Guam's sign regulations by establishing clearer standards that support economic development, promote public safety, and preserve the natural beauty of our island.

For commercial and industrial areas, this legislation establishes reasonable standards for traditional and digital signs. It provides clearer requirements for the size and placement of signs on buildings and freestanding structures while formally recognizing digital displays within Guam's zoning regulations. Recognizing that improperly placed signs can create traffic hazards, the legislation also requires political signs in commercial and industrial zones to be located on private property and set back at least eight feet from paved roads. These requirements will help protect drivers by maintaining clear sightlines and reducing potential distractions.

Tourism remains one of Guam's most important industries, and preserving the beauty of our island is essential to maintaining Guam as an attractive destination for visitors and a welcoming home for our residents. Tumon Bay is especially important to our tourism industry. This legislation establishes clear standards for wall signs in the Tumon Bay district that balance the needs of businesses with the importance of preserving the area's appearance.

The legislation also recognizes that businesses should have a reasonable opportunity to correct violations. While civil penalties remain available for violations that are not corrected, the Director of Public Works may waive late penalties for up to 30 days when a business demonstrates a genuine, good-faith effort to comply with the law. This approach encourages compliance without imposing unnecessary financial burdens on businesses working to correct problems.

Importantly, the legislation provides greater flexibility for properties with unique circumstances. The Guam Land Use Commission, working with the Department of Public Works, may grant variances from sign requirements when appropriate. To maintain reasonable limits on the size of signs and protect public safety, no individual sign face approved through a variance may exceed 200 square feet.

Bill No. 175-38 (COR) strikes a reasonable balance between supporting local businesses, protecting motorists, and preserving the beauty of our island. By modernizing outdated regulations and establishing clear, practical standards, this legislation reduces unnecessary regulatory burdens while promoting responsible economic development.

For these reasons, I sign Bill No. 175-38 (COR) into law as Public Law No. 38-146.

Senseramente,

LOURDES A. LEON GUERRERO
