49	T26-1700	297	Patricia SN Mafnas, Administrator DCW		Capacity Building Consorium (CBC) Regional Training for FVPSA State and Territorial Administrators	$ -	Attending the Family Violence Prevention and Services Act (FVPSA) conference in San Francisco on August 28 and 29, 2026, provided valuable insights that will help strengthen the Bureau of Social Services Administration's Domestic Violence Shelter Program and ensure compliance with federal grant guidelines. The conference brought together domestic violence advocates, federal representatives, and community leaders to discuss updated requirements, trauma-informed care, and effective strategies for addressing intimate partner violence. The sessions provided practical ideas for improving grant management, assessing community needs, and providing culturally responsive services. BOSSA will use these insights to maintain federal grant compliance and build stronger partnerships focused on preventing violence in our community.

63	T26-1700	311	Estelle Ada, ELC Program Manager		2026 HAIAR Program Manager Meeting	$ 3,824.73	Participation in the 2026 Healthcare-Associated Infections/Antimicrobial Resistance (HAI/AR) Program Managers Meeting provided significant gains for Guam's ELC HAI/AR efforts. Engagement in the sessions strengthened coordination across program activities and supported clearer decision-making around oversight, prioritization, resource management, and planning for the remainder of the ELC cycle. These discussions improved alignment with program goals and helped identify operational needs. The September 18th Islander Day further enhanced collaboration by elevating local perspectives and reinforcing relationships critical to advancing HAI/AR initiatives.

70	T26-1700	318	Theresa C. Arriola, Director DPHSS		Title V MCH Service Block Grant Application/Annual Review	$ 2,971.23	As the DPHSS Director and Guam Medicaid Director, attending the mandatory in-person MCH Block Grant review in Honolulu was essential to ensure Guam's application aligned with federal requirements. Direct engagement with HRSA reviewers strengthened coordination between Medicaid and MCH priorities and supported a clearer presentation of Guam's needs, improving the overall quality of the submission.
71	T26-1700	319	Amanda Shelton		Title V MCH Service Block Grant Application/Annual Review	$ 2,971.23	As the former Deputy Director who oversaw DCW and DHAPP and now serves as the Governor's Special Assistant for Health, my attendance at the mandatory in-person MCH Block Grant review strengthened integration between these programs and Guam's maternal and child health priorities. Participation supported clearer alignment of cross-program efforts with needed legislative improvements, ensuring Guam's laws better reflect current maternal and child health needs and advance coordinated, effective policy solutions for families.
