Redeeming the Time
 by Pastor Paul M. Sadler

"Redeeming the time, because the days are evil" (Eph. 5:16).

Time is a very precious commodity—here one minute, gone the next! It is said that Jonathan Edwards wrote in his diary at the age of twenty: "Resolved, never to lose one moment of time, but improve it in the most profitable way I possibly can." If we were to paraphrase "redeeming the time," it would probably come out something like this: "Making wise use of the opportunities we are given." This, of course, transcends every area of our Christian experience.

We must take advantage of the opportunities which come our way to tell others about the Mystery. You would be amazed at the number who have written us to share how their search for the truth came to an end when one of our "grace people" opened Paul's gospel to them. The letters usually go something like this: "I sensed there was something more, but I just couldn't put my finger on it until I heard the Word, rightly divided!" We tend to rationalize that our Christian friends are so entrenched in denominationalism that they would never receive this message, even if we did tell them. This may be true, but how many opportunities have been passed by due to our reluctance to open our mouth boldly to make known the Mystery?

Perhaps we need to write these words anew on the tablets of our hearts:

"Walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil" (Eph. 5:15,16).

"Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit...for all saints; And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel... that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak" (Eph. 6:18-20).

"Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time, Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man" (Col. 4:5-6).

		B. Visual Acuity DPHSS Deputy PeterJohn had reached out to DMV Director Maria Lizama asking about the eye testing machines, and she had checked with the motor vehicle branch and they had told her that the testing is done within the same jurisdiction throughout the country. If the individual does not pass the in house test at DMV, then they are advised to go see the eye doctor for further clarification.		0852
		C. Vision exam (online process) Dr. Archer had stressed about before the online renewal to receive your driver’s license, individuals who need an eye exam go to the optometrist to get a clearance from their doctor to bring to DMV, and The online process for DMV is concerning how you can renew your driver license with entering numbers on the eye exam portion. Dr. San Nicolas had stressed that she seen an individual who works at DMV and asked how are they handling the online eye exam portion. They are trying to figure out how to upload the information from the doctor’s office if they are going to do the online. The online renewal for the eye exam has to have the doctor’s name and date of the eye exam. Another concern is someone from DMV should have reached out to the doctor’s about this situation. DPHSS Deputy PeterJohn had reached out to DMV Director Maria Lizama asking about the eye testing machines, and she had checked with their motor vehicle branch and they had told her that the testing is done within the same jurisdiction throughout the country. 		DMV, then they are advised to go see the eye doctor for further clarification. Attorney T. Keeler suggested for the board to follow up with DMV, if we need his assistance with the follow up he will need a formal letter request, either email or a letter. Formal letter or email to include these questions on DMV acuity machine, online renewal application signature (eye exam) and 8 year policy for driver license.
